Golf: The Winning Formula Nick Faldo

Nick Faldo, the 1987 British Open champion, conveys in this book the lessons he learned on his way to the top. He recounts the story of how his golfing technique improved under the guidance of teacher David Leadbetter, and describes the problems of being a tall golfer, gaining confidence on the putting green, getting distance from a bunker and learning to think positively. Nick Faldo was also a member of the victorious European Ryder Cup team of 1987 and is the author of "On Course for the Open, 1987".
