Kenya Michael Poliza

Award-winning photographer Michael Poliza's seventh book for teNeues showcases Kenya. Alternating aerial shots with dramatic landscapes, vivid animal studies, and portraits of the proud Maasai people, this stunning book captures the spirit of the place and its inhabitants. This master photographer conveys the adventure and excitement of these unique locations. As with all his best-selling titles, Poliza's concern for fragile eco-systems and vibrant cultures is on every page. A skilled artist and gifted storyteller, Poliza's one-of-a-kind work combines advanced technique and original composition. Each breathtaking image stands on its own as a fascinating piece of art.

Review

Flamingo-flecked aerial shots, tribal portraits and big-skies wildlife parades adorn this blockbuster tome by actor-turned-snapper Poliza. Friends including fellow A-lister Steve Bloom contribute to a suitably monumental portrait of East African life. --Wanderlust

A beautiful ode to the country's scenery, wildlife and people. --Conde Nast Traveller, December 2011
